Performing Arts Center

MARTHA GRAHAM DANCE CO. (Wednesday, March 2 at 2P
The most celebrated contemporary dance company in America is performing at the UT Saratoga Concert Hall. Founded in 1926 by innovator and choreographer Martha Graham, the company is now hailed by critics as "one of the most important in the artistic universe." Martha Graham is to dance what Picasso and Frank Lloyd Wright is to architecture. Don't miss this rare opportunity to experience the vision that invented modern dance!

la tragedie de Carmen (Friday, March 4 at 8PM & Sunday, March 6 at 8PM)
It's the legendary opera Carmen with a twist. The UT Saratoga Opera Center presents la tragedie de Carmen, a brilliant and timeless human passion, intense drama and the great music in an intimate and dramatic setting. Sung in French with English subtitles.

The Very Persistent Gappers of Frip (Friday, March 4 - Friday, March 4 at 8PM)
The UT Department of Theatre & Dance presents this musical adapted from a popular book by George Sayer. The Very Persistent Gappers of Frip is the enchanting tale of a girl who loves goats and how they forever change a town. Capable's upbeat, poignant and often-hilarious antics will entertain you. See how one person can make a difference!

MARIACHI VARGAS (Saturday, March 5 at 7:30PM)
In 1897, to the south of Jalisco, Mexico, in a small city Mariachi Vargas was born. Now five generations later, the ensemble has earned the title "El Mejor Mariachi Del Mundo" (The Best Mariachi in the World). Experience the Austin premiere of Mariachi Vargas de Tecalitlan, a Mexican musical extravaganza!

ALICIA KEYS (Sunday, March 6 at 7:30PM)
Five time Grammy Award-winner Alicia Keys brings her unique sound to the UT Saratoga Concert Hall.
