

DE SOTO, TX
SUNDAY 26,374
OCT 28 2001

Burrelle's
TRAVEL & TOUR SERVICES

8320
XZWC

7 XX..S. RW

Central Happenings

Nov. 12-18

COLORADO

Star Lighting—Castle Rock, Nov. 17. This community kicks off the holiday season with the lighting of the star on top of Castle Rock. Don't miss the carolers strolling through the streets or the chili dinner, sponsored by the town firefighters. You might even see Santa Claus. (303) 688-4597.

Fourth Annual Mountain Holiday Festival Arts and Crafts Fair—Woodland Park, Nov. 17-18. Do some early Christmas shopping when more than 40 artisans sell their wares. Area residents offer chili and baked goods. Ute Pass Cultural Center. (719) 687-9885.

MONTANA

Bigfork Elves Decorate for Christmas—Bigfork, Nov. 17. Elves gather at the Bigfork Inn, then disperse, decorating the village for the Christmas season. Costumes and sleigh rides set the stage for Christmas. (406) 837-5888.

Holiday Food Festival and Seasonal Creations Craft Show—Billings, Nov. 17-18. Shop at more than 65 booths of handcrafted items and sample the best fare of some of Billings' restaurants, carerers, and candy makers. (800) 543-2505.

NEW MEXICO

Holiday Arts Sale—Las Cruces, Nov. 15-17. Regional artists sell their work at the Cultural Complex. (505) 541-2155.

20th Annual Placitas Holiday Fine Arts and Crafts Sale—Placitas, Nov. 17-18. This juried show is held at three locations: the school, a pavilion at the local winery, and an enormous tent. Browse the handcrafted items and enjoy a different selection of food at each location. (505) 867-2450.

OKLAHOMA

Dickens on the Boulevard—Claremore, Nov. 16-18. Claremore becomes the world of Charles Dickens as carolers and lamplighters stroll through downtown in Victorian costumes, local celebrities don period clothing and create living windows in the storefronts, and bell and bagpipe players provide entertainment. (918) 341-8615.

Historic Home Tour—Newkirk, Nov. 18. Take a guided tour through several of Newkirk's historic homes and a couple of the downtown buildings—each decked out for the holidays. (580) 362-2377.

TEXAS

Festival of Lights—Lake Jackson, Nov. 17. Lake Jackson welcomes the holiday season with outdoor music and entertainment, food, a carnival, and "snowland"—real snow created artificially. A parade kicks off the illumination of the town's holiday streetlights, and everyone boogie-woogies to the music of the Ezra Charles Band. (979) 415-2600.

Mariachi Vargas Extravaganza—

San Antonio, Nov. 16-18. Take in some lively Mexican music. The extravaganza features mariachi competitions, a concert by Mariachi Vargas de Tecalitlan, and a mariachi Mass at San Fernando Cathedral. (210) 225-3353.

WYOMING

Wine Fest—Laramie, Nov. 16. Enjoy a variety of wines and hors d'oeuvres and don't forget to bid on a silent auction item or two. Space is limited, so call ahead for tickets. Wyoming Territorial Park. (800) 845-2287.

Winter Art Fair—Riverton, Nov. 16-17. Artists and crafters display their work in the 30th annual fair sponsored by the local arts council. Fremont County Fair Building and Armory. (307) 856-9064.

INGLESIDE, TX
WEEKLY 869
NOV 1 2001

Burrelles
INFORMATION SERVICES

8500
.XZV..

127

RW
XX..S.

Central Happenings

Nov. 12-18

COLORADO

Star Lighting—Castle Rock, Nov. 17. This community kicks off the holiday season with the lighting of the star on top of Castle Rock. Don't miss the carolers strolling through the streets or the chili dinner, sponsored by the town firefighters. You might even see Santa Claus. (303) 688-4597.

Fourth Annual Mountain Holiday Festival Arts and Crafts Fair—Woodland Park, Nov. 17-18. Do some early Christmas shopping when more than 40 artisans sell their wares. Area residents offer chili and baked goods. The Pass Cultural Center. (719) 687-9885.

MONTANA

Bigfork Elves Decorate for Christmas—Bigfork, Nov. 17. Elves gather at the Bigfork Inn, then disperse, decorating the village for the Christmas season. Costumes and sleigh rides set the stage for Christmas. (406) 837-5888.

Holiday Food Festival and Seasonal Creations Craft Show—Billings, Nov. 17-18. Shop at more than 65 booths of handcrafted items and sample the best fare of some of Billings' restaurants, caterers, and candy makers. (800) 543-2505.

NEW MEXICO

Holiday Arts Sale—Las Cruces, Nov. 15-17. Regional artists sell their work at the Cultural Complex. (505) 541-2155.

20th Annual Placitas Holiday Fine Arts and Crafts Sale—Placitas, Nov. 17-18.

This juried show is held at three locations: the school, a pavilion at the local winery, and an enormous tent. Browse the handcrafted items and enjoy a different selection of food at each location. (505) 867-2450.

OKLAHOMA

Dickens on the Boulevard—Claremore, Nov. 16-18. Claremore becomes the world of Charles Dickens as carolers and lamplighters stroll through downtown in Victorian costumes, local celebrities don period clothing and create living windows in the storefronts, and bell and bagpipe players provide entertainment. (918) 341-8615.

Historic Home Tour—Newkirk, Nov. 18. Take a guided tour through several of Newkirk's historic homes and a couple of the downtown buildings—each decked out for the holidays. (580) 362-2377.

TEXAS

Festival of Lights—Lake Jackson, Nov. 17. Lake Jackson welcomes the holiday season with outdoor music and entertainment, food, a carnival, and "snowland"—real snow created artificially. A parade kicks off the illumination of the town's holiday

streetlights, and everyone boogie-woogies to the music of the Ezra Charles Band. (979) 415-2600.

Mariachi Vargas Extravaganza—San Antonio, Nov. 16-18.

Take in some lively Mexican music. The extravaganza features mariachi competitions, a concert by Mariachi Vargas de Tecalitlan, and a mariachi Mass at San Fernando Cathedral. (210) 225-3353.

WYOMING

Wine Fest—Laramie, Nov. 16. Enjoy a variety of wines and hors d'oeuvres and don't forget to bid on a silent auction item or two. Space is limited, so call ahead for tickets. Wyoming Territorial Park. (800) 845-2287.

Winter Art Fair—Riverton, Nov. 16-17. Artists and crafters display their work in the 30th annual fair sponsored by the local arts council. Fremont County Fair Building and Armory. (307) 856-9064.

SAN MARCOS, TX
SUNDAY 5,700
OCT 28 2001

Burrelles
INFORMATION SERVICES

4900

.xzw..

60

XX..S. RW

Central Happenings

Nov. 12-18

COLORADO

Star Lighting—Castle Rock, Nov. 17. This community kicks off the holiday season with the lighting of the star on top of Castle Rock. Don't miss the carolers strolling through the streets or the chili dinner, sponsored by the town firefighters. You might even see Santa Claus. (303) 688-4597.

Fourth Annual Mountain Holiday Festival Arts and Crafts Fair—Woodland Park, Nov. 17-18. Do some early Christmas shopping when more than 40 artisans sell their wares. Area residents offer chili and baked goods. Ute Pass Cultural Center. (719) 687-9885.

MONTANA

Bigfork Elves Decorate for Christmas—Bigfork, Nov. 17. Elves gather at the Bigfork Inn, then disperse, decorating the village for the Christmas season. Costumes and sleigh rides set the stage for Christmas. (406) 837-5888.

Holiday Food Festival and Seasonal Creations Craft Show—Billings, Nov. 17-18. Shop at more than 65 booths of handcrafted items and sample the best fare of some of Billings' restaurants, caterers, and candy makers. (800) 543-2505.

NEW MEXICO

Holiday Arts Sale—Las Cruces, Nov. 15-17. Regional artists sell their work at the Cultural Complex. (505) 541-2155.

20th Annual Placitas Holiday Fine Arts and Crafts Sale—Placitas, Nov. 17-18. This juried show is held at three locations: the school, a pavilion at the local winery, and an enormous tent. Browse the handcrafted items and enjoy a different selection of food at each location. (505) 867-2454.

OKLAHOMA

Dickens on the Boulevard—Claremore, Nov. 16-18. Claremore becomes the world of Charles Dickens as carolers and lamplighters stroll through downtown in Victorian costumes, local celebrities don period clothing and create living windows in the storefronts, and bell and bagpipe players provide entertainment. (918) 341-8615.

Historic Home Tour—Newkirk, Nov. 18. Take a guided tour through several of Newkirk's historic homes and a couple of the downtown buildings—each decked out for the holidays. (580) 362-2377.

TEXAS

Festival of Lights—Lake Jackson, Nov. 17. Lake Jackson welcomes the holiday season with outdoor music and entertainment, food, a carnival, and "snowland"—real snow created artificially. A parade kicks off the illumination of the town's holiday

streetlights, and everyone boogie-woogies to the music of the Ezra Charles Band. (979) 415-2600.

Mariachi Vargas Extravaganza—San Antonio, Nov. 16-18.

Take in some lively Mexican music. The extravaganza features mariachi competitions, a concert by Mariachi Vargas de Tecalitlan, and a mariachi Mass at San Fernando Cathedral. (210) 225-3353.

WYOMING

Wine Fest—Laramie, Nov. 16. Enjoy a variety of wines and hors d'oeuvres and don't forget to bid on a silent auction item or two. Space is limited, so call ahead for tickets. Wyoming Territorial Park. (800) 845-2287.

Winter Art Fair—Riverton, Nov. 16-17. Artists and crafters display their work in the 30th annual fair sponsored by the local arts council. Fremont County Fair Building and Armory. (307) 255-2264.

Central Happenings

Nov. 12-18

2-4157 COLORADO

Star Lighting—Castle Rock, Nov. 17. This community kicks off the holiday season with the lighting of the star on top of Castle Rock. Don't miss the carolers strolling through the streets or the chili dinner, sponsored by the town firefighters. You might even see Santa Claus. (303) 688-4597.

Fourth Annual Mountain Holiday Festival Arts and Crafts Fair—Woodland Park, Nov. 17-18. Do some early Christmas shopping when more than 40 artisans sell their wares. Area residents offer chili and baked goods. Use Pass Cultural Center. (719) 687-9885.

MONTANA

Bigfork Elves Decorate for Christmas—Bigfork, Nov. 17. Elves gather at the Bigfork Inn, then disperse, decorating the village for the Christmas season. Costumes and sleigh rides set the stage for Christmas. (406) 837-5888.

Holiday Food Festival and Seasonal Creations Craft Show—Billings, Nov. 17-18. Shop at more than 65 booths of handcrafted items and sample the best fare of some of Billings' restaurants, caterers, and candy makers. (800) 543-2505.

NEW MEXICO

Holiday Arts Sale—Las Cruces, Nov. 15-17. Regional artists sell their work at the Cultural Complex. (505) 541-2155.

20th Annual Placitas Holiday Fine Arts and Crafts Sale—Placitas, Nov. 17-18. This juried show is held at three locations: the school, a pavilion at the local winery, and an enormous tent. Browse the handcrafted items and enjoy a different selection of food at each location. (505) 867-2450.

OKLAHOMA

Dickens on the Boulevard—Claremore, Nov. 16-18. Claremore becomes the world of Charles Dickens as carolers and lamplighters stroll through downtown in Victorian costumes, local celebrities don period clothing and create living windows in the storefronts, and bell and bagpipe players provide entertainment. (918) 341-8615.

Historic Home Tour—Newkirk, Nov. 18. Take a guided tour through several of Newkirk's historic homes and a couple of the downtown buildings—each decked out for the holidays. (580) 362-2377.

TEXAS

Festival of Lights—Lake Jackson, Nov. 17. Lake Jackson welcomes the holiday season with outdoor music and entertainment, food, a carnival, and "snowland"—real snow created artificially. A parade kicks off the illumination of the town's holiday

streetlights, and everyone boogie-woogies to the music of the Ezra Charles Band. (979) 415-2600.

Mariachi Vargas Extravaganza

—San Antonio, Nov. 16-18. Take in some lively Mexican music. The extravaganza features mariachi competitions, a concert by Mariachi Vargas de Tecalitlan, and a mariachi Mass at San Fernando Cathedral. (210) 225-3353.

WYOMING

Wine Fest—Laramie, Nov. 16. Enjoy a variety of wines and hors d'oeuvres and don't forget to bid on a silent auction item or two. Space is limited, so call ahead for tickets. Wyoming Territorial Park. (800) 845-2287.

Winter Art Fair—Riverton, Nov. 16-17. Artists and crafters display their work in the 30th annual fair sponsored by the local arts council. Fremont County Fair Building and Armory. (307) 856-9064.

Central Happenings

Nov. 12-18

04151 COLORADO

Star Lighting—Castle Rock, Nov. 17. This community kicks off the holiday season with the lighting of the star on top of Castle Rock. Don't miss the carolers strolling through the streets or the chili dinner, sponsored by the town firefighters. You might even see Santa Claus. (303) 688-4597.

Fourth Annual Mountain Holiday Festival Arts and Crafts Fair—Woodland Park, Nov. 17-18. Do some early Christmas shopping when more than 40 artisans sell their wares. Area residents offer chili and baked goods. Ute Pass Cultural Center. (719) 687-9885.

MONTANA

Bigfork Elves Decorate for Christmas—Bigfork, Nov. 17. Elves gather at the Bigfork Inn, then disperse, decorating the village for the Christmas season. Costumes and sleigh rides set the stage for Christmas. (406) 837-5888.

Holiday Food Festival and Seasonal Creations Craft Show—Billings, Nov. 17-18. Shop at more than 65 booths of handcrafted items and sample the best fare of some of Billings' restaurants, caterers, and candy makers. (800) 543-2505.

NEW MEXICO

Holiday Arts Sale—Las Cruces, Nov. 15-17. Regional artists sell their work at the Cultural Complex. (505) 541-2155.

20th Annual Placitas Holiday Fine Arts and Crafts Sale—Placitas, Nov. 17-18. This juried show is held at three locations: the school, a pavilion at the local winery, and an enormous tent. Browse the handcrafted items and enjoy a different selection of food at each location. (505) 867-2450.

OKLAHOMA

Dickens on the Boulevard—Claremore, Nov. 16-18. Claremore becomes the world of Charles Dickens as carolers and lamplighters stroll through downtown in Victorian costumes, local celebrities don period clothing and create living windows in the storefronts, and bell and bagpipe players provide entertainment. (918) 341-8615.

Historic Home Tour—Newkirk, Nov. 18. Take a guided tour through several of Newkirk's historic homes and a couple of the downtown buildings—each decked out for the holidays. (580) 362-2377.

TEXAS

Festival of Lights—Lake Jackson, Nov. 17. Lake Jackson welcomes the holiday season with outdoor music and entertainment, food, a carnival, and "snowland"—real snow created artificially. A parade kicks off the illumination of the town's holiday

streetlights, and everyone boogie-woogies to the music of the Ezra Charles Band. (979) 415-2600.

Mariachi Vargas Extravaganza—

San Antonio, Nov. 16-18. Take in some lively Mexican music. The extravaganza features mariachi competitions, a concert by Mariachi Vargas de Tecalitlan, and a mariachi Mass at San Fernando Cathedral. (210) 225-3353.

WYOMING

Wine Fest—Laramie, Nov. 16. Enjoy a variety of wines and hors d'oeuvres and don't forget to bid on a silent auction item or two. Space is limited, so call ahead for rickets. Wyoming Territorial Park. (800) 845-2287.

Winter Art Fair—Riverton, Nov. 16-17. Artists and crafters display their work in the 30th annual fair sponsored by the local arts council. Fremont County Fair Building and Armory. (307) 856-9064. ☆

Central Happenings

Nov. 12-18

5-4151
COLORADO

Star Lighting—Castle Rock, Nov. 17. This community kicks off the holiday season with the lighting of the star on top of Castle Rock. Don't miss the carolers strolling through the streets or the chili dinner, sponsored by the town firefighters. You might even see Santa Claus. (303) 688-4597.

Fourth Annual Mountain Holiday Festival Arts and Crafts Fair—Woodland Park, Nov. 17-18. Do some early Christmas shopping when more than 40 artisans sell their wares. Area residents offer chili and baked goods. Ute Pass Cultural Center. (719) 687-9885.

MONTANA

Bigfork Elves Decorate for Christmas—Bigfork, Nov. 17. Elves gather at the Bigfork Inn, then disperse, decorating the village for the Christmas season. Costumes and sleigh rides set the stage for Christmas. (406) 837-5888.

Holiday Food Festival and Seasonal Creations Craft Show—Billings, Nov. 17-18. Shop at more than 65 booths of handcrafted items and sample the best fare of some of Billings' restaurants, caterers, and candy makers. (800) 543-2505.

NEW MEXICO

Holiday Arts Sale—Las Cruces, Nov. 15-17. Regional artists sell their work at the Cultural Complex. (505) 541-2155.

20th Annual Placitas Holiday Fine Arts and Crafts Sale—Placitas, Nov. 17-18. This juried show is held at three locations: the school, a pavilion at the local winery, and an enormous tent. Browse the handcrafted items and enjoy a different selection of food at each location. (505) 867-2450.

OKLAHOMA

Dickens on the Boulevard—Claremore, Nov. 16-18. Claremore becomes the world of Charles Dickens as carolers and lamplighters stroll through downtown in Victorian costumes, local celebrities don period clothing and create living windows in the storefronts, and bell and bagpipe players provide entertainment. (918) 341-8615.

Historic Home Tour—Newkirk, Nov. 18. Take a guided tour through several of Newkirk's historic homes and a couple of the downtown buildings—each decked out for the holidays. (580) 362-2377.

TEXAS

Festival of Lights—Lake Jackson, Nov. 17. Lake Jackson welcomes the holiday season with outdoor music and entertainment, food, a carnival, and "snowland"—real snow created artificially. A parade kicks off the illumination of the town's holiday

streetlights, and everyone boogie-woogies to the music of the Ezra Charles Band. (979) 415-2600.

Mariachi Vargas Extravaganza—San Antonio, Nov. 16-18.

Take in some lively Mexican music. The extravaganza features mariachi competitions, a concert by Mariachi Vargas de Tecalitlan, and a mariachi Mass at San Fernando Cathedral. (210) 225-3353.

WYOMING

Wine Fest—Laramie, Nov. 16. Enjoy a variety of wines and hors d'oeuvres and don't forget to bid on a silent auction item or two. Space is limited, so call ahead for tickets. Wyoming Territorial Park. (800) 845-2287.

Winter Art Fair—Riverton, Nov. 16-17. Artists and crafters display their work in the 30th annual fair sponsored by the local arts council. Fremont County Fair Building and Armory. (307) 856-9064. ☆