The 12th Annual Mariachi Vargas Extravaganza brings kids from all over the southwest to San Antonio this week.

The last week in November brings kids from all over the southwestern United States to San Antonio, to compete in the largest mariachi competition in the nation. The winner is crowned "Best in the U.S." KUT's Andy Uhler has the story of a girl who's perennially finished second – but she has one final chance to take home all the marbles.
