

SA Fall Art Festivals 06

San Antonio's Fall Art Festivals 2006 marks the third year that some of San Antonio's signature seasonal events have been marketed under the Fall Art Festivals umbrella. Now through December, the Alamo City comes alive with a calendar offering something for eclectic tastes and those looking for pure San Antonio.

San Antonio New World Wine and Food Festival, a multi-cultural culinary festival focusing on the wines and foods of all the Americas with special emphasis on Spain this year, will offer a palate-tempting array of fine culinary offerings from the Alamo City's finest restaurants and chefs, as well as guest chefs, Nov. 7-12.

Mariachi Vargas Extravaganza, Nov. 30-Dec. 3. Celebrate the music of Mexico in the Alamo City with a tradition that spans 5 generations and over 100 years during a concert featuring the Mexico City based, Mariachi Vargas de Tecalitlán.
