

SAN ANTONIO

MAGAZINE

VIDORRA

LIVE ON
TOP OF THE WORLD

IN THE HEART OF DOWNTOWN
SAN ANTONIO

Discover life from a new point of view in downtown San Antonio. High-rise condos and townhomes from the mid-$200,000s.

Now Under Construction

Wurstfest

During the 10-day festival, you'll find a variety of entertainment, food and fun on the Wurstfest Grounds in Landa Park and many special events throughout New Braunfels and Comal County.

Zoo Ball

The San Antonio Zoo herds in the finest of the city with a black tie gala complete with an elegant dinner, dancing and live and silent auctions.

Cinefestival

As the oldest-running international Latino film and video festival in the United States, this event provides a regional forum for viewing works produced by and about Chicano/Latino/Indigenous peoples.

Holiday River Parade and Lighting Ceremony

On the Friday after Thanksgiving, approximately 122,000 lights form an illuminated canopy over San Antonio's River Walk. After the lighting, enjoy a one-hour river parade with brilliantly lit floats and costumed participants.

Holiday Boat Caroling

School, church, company and civic groups ring in the holidays by singing traditional carols on cruising boats along the San Antonio River. Lasts into mid-December as well.

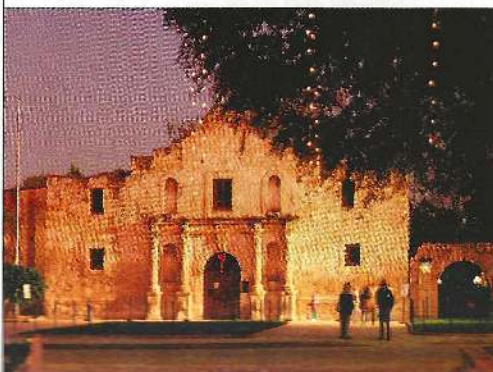

Nutcracker Sweets

More than 15 award-winning chefs from across the United States and Texas donate talent and ingredients to prepare their favorite desserts for guests at this event, benefitting the Battered Women's Shelter of Bexar County.

DECEMBER

Kids' Gingerbread

At the San Antonio Children's Museum, kids can build their own gingerbread houses at this holiday event.

ABOVE The Nutcracker is performed each December by Ballet San Antonio. Photo courtesy of Ballet San Antonio.

La Gran Posada

At this re-enactment of Joseph and Mary's journey to Bethlehem, the route follows Milam Park to Market Square, past City Hall and the Bexar County Courthouse to San Fernando Cathedral.

Los Pastores

Actors depicting Lucifer and a band of devils, which represent the seven deadly sins, attempt to prevent the shepherds from traveling to Bethlehem to worship the Christ Child. The performance is held at Mission San José.

King William Holiday Home Tour

Walk through this historic district and see how the homeowners in King William live within history by combining Old World styles with contemporary tastes.

Bazar Sabado

Find unique merchandise including one-of-a-kind ponchos from Ecuador, ceremonial hats from Peru and Chiapas, Mexico, candlestick holders from Huastec Indian altars and hand-loomed rugs from the Zapotec Indians of Oaxaca. Benefits the San Antonio Museum of Art.

Hecho a Mano

Guadalupe Cultural Arts Center hosts a fine art and craft market with a juried showcase of contemporary artists at the Plaza del Arte.

Mariachi Vargas Extravaganza

Four days are filled with vocal and group competitions, music-related art exhibits, concerts and a mariachi mass.